

KENDALL YARDS

POINTS OF INTEREST

- | | | | |
|---|--------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1 Future Connection to Boone Ave. Extension | 4 Connection to Sandifur Trail | 7 Hamblen Overlook | 10 The Nest Plaza |
| 2 Sunset Overlook | 5 Riverbend Overlook | 8 Olmsted Green Park | 11 Monroe Street Overlook |
| 3 Future Sunset Park | 6 Big Table Overlook | 9 The Gorge Overlook | 12 Connection to Riverfront Park |

ART INSTALLATIONS

- | | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------|-----------------------|
| A Love Letter to Spokane | D So It Flows | G Parliament of Hares |
| B Bulldozer | E Millennium Mobius | H Mixed Forms |
| C Cherry Blossom Cathedral | F Al's Cube | I Wet to Dry |

FEATURED ART INSTALLATIONS

Love Letter to Spokane

Cain & Todd Benson, 2012
This hidden gem is a painted mural of life in our great city.

Located in the hallway between the Kendall Yards Welcome Center and Central Food.

A

So It Flows

Bill & Karma Simmons, 2011
A horizontal corten steel fence structure that evokes the flow of the Spokane River.

Located at the Hamblen Overlook along the Centennial Trail near Nettleton St.

D

Parliament of Hares

Beth Cavener Stichter, 2010

This permanent bronze sculpture installation is a nod to the British fable of forest governance.

Located in front of Spa Paradiso in the business district.

G

Bulldozer

Roger Berry, 2012

This corten steel sculpture reflects the silent power and toughness of those who built our communities.

Located near the Maple Street Bridge overpass along Summit Parkway.

B

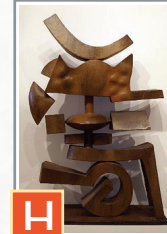

Millennium Mobius

Peter Forakis, 2000

A sculpture installation made of painted red steel, reflecting the fascination with and power of geometry.

Located on The Nest Plaza.

E

Mixed Forms

Harold Balaz, 2012

This steel sculpture by a local cultural icon, is an ode to the geometry of life.

Located in front of The Yards in the business district.

H

Cherry Blossom Cathedral

Cain & Todd Benson, 2012

A large scale painted mural of "life under the canopy in the smallest detail."

Located in the Kendall Yards Welcome Center.

C

Al's Cube

Mario Uribe, 2011

A steel cube sculpture with internal patterns reflecting the Buddhist sacred geometric philosophy of heaven, earth and man.

Located in Olmsted Brothers Green park.

F

Wet to Dry

Unknown, 2012

This concrete stamped word ladder begins with the word "wet" near the river and changing one letter at a time transitions to the word "dry."

Located on The Nest Plaza.

I